

Village of Hastings on Hudson - Waterfront Rezoning Committee

Code of Conduct - Committee Members

The Waterfront Rezoning Committee has been charged with developing a plan to set zoning parameters for the waterfront in the Village of Hastings on Hudson. In the course of its work, the committee agrees to abide by this code of conduct:

- Listen with courtesy and respect to each other and members of the public.
- Be civil, even in the face of disagreement.
- Be clear in communication and elicit clear communication with third parties.
- Use common sense in making decisions.
- In discussion, drive toward consensus and resolution.

Code of Conduct - Members of the Public

The Waterfront Rezoning Committee will conduct its business in a public forum and will make its agenda, minutes and process available to the public through various channels such as email newsletters, Village website and public forum. In order for the committee to discharge its duties, it requires the following code of conduct from the public:

- Follow meeting protocol; speak only if given the floor by the committee chair.
- Limit comments and questions to 3 minutes to allow participation by others.
- Listen with courtesy and respect to each other and members of the committee.
- Be civil, even in the face of disagreement.
- Give committee members and other speakers the benefit of the doubt.
- Take responsibility for being informed about the process; prepare comments and ask questions in the context of the planning process.

<https://www.hastingsgov.org/waterfront-rezoning-committee>

NB: Any committee member or member of the public who does not abide by the code of conduct may be removed from a meeting and possibly barred from future participation.